Producer's Letter

Dear Friends,

The play you are to see tonight, was to have been our entry for the 1964 Services Drama Festival, but owing to the situation at the present time, the festival is now cancelled until a later date. I think our choice of play for your enjoyment this evening is a good subtle comedy, our cast is excellent, and the plot delightful.

The play is set outside the Palace of Themiscyra. Our two hero's Heracles and Theseus have come to get the Royal Belt from Queen Antiope and her sister Queen Hippolyte. The ensuing action is contrary to expectations, until the two on seeing Gods Hera and Zeus take a hand.

I hope you our audience will try and imagine yourselves transported back through time to ancient Greece, and enjoy Benn W. Levy's Dialogue.

DAVE FOSTER.
